

Meet Your Strengths Coach

Debbie Tatum

Debbie is the Executive Director of the Catholic Foundation for Northwest Indiana. She holds a bachelor's degree in Computer Information Systems and a master's degree in Pastoral Studies, as well as a Lay Ecclesial Ministry certificate from the Diocese of Gary, Indiana. Debbie is a dynamic public speaker in both the ministerial and business arenas, as well as an experienced retreat facilitator and Gallup-trained Strengths coach. Debbie's greatest passion is using her top 5 Strengths – Learner, Empathy, Input, Woo, and Developer – to inspire and empower other leaders by helping them explore their innate strengths and coaching them to lead with those gifts and talents that come most naturally to them. Debbie is a member of Business Women United Network and Strengths Coach at Queen of All Saints Parish in Michigan City, and devotes her spare time to several causes, including championing the principles of Right Relationship to teens and pre-teens in an effort to stem teen dating violence.

“Unless people know the grandeur for which they are made, they cannot reach fulfillment and their lives will be incomplete. Nor will they know that they are called into interpersonal union with God and with each other.”

Talents + Skills + Knowledge = Strengths

Living Your Strengths

Have you ever asked yourself “What does God want me to do with my life? If you have, a Living Yours Strengths session may help you answer that question. It is a faith based journey, based on scientific research, to identify and strengthen your God given talents and to develop the potential hidden deep within you.

What will you learn in the programs?

- To identify your five key strengths
- To recognize the value of your strengths
- To use your talents for personal growth and service to others.
- To develop strength based community
- Understand and appreciate other strengths
- Improve your relationship with others

Using the Clifton Strengthsfinder computer assessment, you will uncover your top talents and strengths. You will learn how to identify and affirm your talents, and how to use them for growth and service.
